

VINS DE PROVENCE
the Taste of Style

Rosé has been the focus of Provence winemaking for centuries. Ever since the Greeks brought wine to the area in 600 BC, the people of Provence have focused on the art of dry rosé production. But why do these rosé wines define the category? What makes Provence rosé the recognized gold standard even today? Wine professionals point to three key factors: heritage, place, and production standards.

VINS DE PROVENCE
the Taste of Style

2016 'Comte de Provence' La Vidaubanaise
125ml £6 Bottle £45

2016 Domaine de Rimauresq Cru Classé
125ml £8.5 Bottle £49

2016 Château Gassier 'Le Pas du Moine'
125ml £9.5 Magnum £110

2016 Château d'Esclans 'Whispering Angel'
125ml £10.5 Bottle £59